

SHOP TALK

Scare up some spooky supplies to be prepared for Halloween

Friday, October 13, 2006

Laura De Marco

Plain Dealer Columnist

Don't be scared. You still have more than two full weeks to shop for Halloween, which quickly has become one of the most consumer-driven of all holidays in America -- second only to Christmas when it comes to decorations. So check out some of Shop Talk's top picks for spooky shopping:

www.babesta.com:

Make baby's first Halloween a memorable one with Babesta's "The Ugliest" doll collection. Choose from the freaky Ice Bat; the Ugly Dog; Tray, the blueberry-pie lover; and the Wedgehead ($9.95-$19.95). All available at www.babesta.com, a site dedicated to hip moms and their equally cool offspring.